Mahāsattva, meaning literally "great being", is a great bodhisattva who has practiced Buddhism for a long time and reached a very high level on the path to awakening. Mahasattva is a luxury Lagoon 620 catamaran, offering 4 queen guest cabins, each with individual air conditioning controls, private en-suite head with electric toilets, bidet, vanity and dry shower stall. The main salon is very spacious. The aft deck is available for alfresco dining, lounging and access to water and water toys and she has a large top fly-bridge with a 360-degree view, bar, and ice maker. She is proud to have a unique wine selection and was awarded 3rd place in the culinary competition at the 2019 annual USVI Boat Show. Enjoy.
