The True North 118 has a custom interior with rich mahogany joinery throughout, consisting of a master suite with a king sized bed, two doubles and a twin, all with entertainment centres, flat screen televisions and en-suite bathroom facilities. In addition, there are quarters for three crew. The main deck features a spacious main saloon with a full bar and entertainment centre. Forward is a private formal dining area, which doubles as a conference room for business meetings, while further forward still is a comfortable country kitchen galley. The large aft deck offers al fresco entertaining and dining with seating, tables and a walk-up bar. The flybridge is accessed from either the raised pilothouse or from the spiral staircase on the aft deck. There is a main helm station to port with a wing station to starboard while aft of the helm is a full bar to starboard and a large oval table with a built-in settee to port. She is the perfec...
