139' PICCHIOTTI

The beautiful 139'5"/42.50m Libra Y, designed by Jon Bannenberg, is a classic gentleman's yacht that stands out for her stylish interiors with original modernist furniture, her well curated collection of contemporary photography and her huge deck spaces. Built in 1977 by Picchiotti, and refitted to an excellent standard in 2016, her timeless design feels as relevant today as it did on her launch. The yacht can comfortably accommodate 10 guests in five cabins, including a stand out master. Her perfectly balanced exterior lines blend beautifully with her extensive deck spaces, offering her guests a sublime on-board experience, and an ideal set up for exploring the Greek Islands. A passionate crew of seven are on hand to make every experience memorable, and her expansive spaces can be used to full advantage, with yoga, massages and other activities on offer to guests. Also pet friendly, guests have the rare opportunity to bring their fo...
