The 72' Azimut is a masterwork of Italian balance from the premier builder Azimut, designed for a sense of weightless luxury. We like the 72' Azimut for its 40-square-meter flybridge, which functions as an elevated social club where an American-style bar sits opposite a large dining table. This sun-drenched sanctuary features curvaceous sofas and a glass balustrade at the stern, making the transition from a midday BBQ to sunset cocktails feel effortless.

Inside, the experience is defined by a light-filled environment that feels like a refined Milanese apartment. Floor-to-ceiling windows and low-profile furniture ensure the horizon is visible from every seat in the salon. The layout highlights include an intimate foredeck lounge with a panoramic sun pad.

Technically, the 72' Azimut specs feature a carbon fiber superstructure for incredible stability and a smooth, dry ride. Performance information indicates twin 1,400 HP MAN engi...
