The 126' Customline is a multi-award-winning tri-deck motor yacht from the Italian shipyard Custom Line, designed for high-capacity luxury. We like the 126' Customline for its adaptable five-cabin layout that comfortably accommodates up to 12 guests, making it a practical choice for large families or groups of friends. The experience is centered on the seamless connection to the ocean, featuring a dedicated beach club at the water's edge and a large deck jacuzzi for relaxing in the Caribbean sun.

Inside, the feel is warm and welcoming, with interior styling by Francesco Paszkowski Design that balances modern lines with cozy, inviting living areas. The layout highlights include a main-deck master suite and flexible guest cabins that can switch between twin and double configurations to suit any group. For those booking a 126' Customline charter, the vessel comes equipped with a massive 39' tender, dual WaveRunners, and Seabobs, ensu...
