The Lazzara 112 "Lady Kristina" is a standout example of American yachting luxury from the renowned builder Lazzara. This 2004 motor yacht is celebrated for offering the volume and amenities of a much larger vessel, thanks to its clever wide-body design. The layout highlights are impressive, featuring a country-kitchen style galley—a favorite for casual family gatherings—and a grand salon perfect for formal entertaining. With its five-stateroom configuration, including a palatial master suite with large panoramic windows, "Lady Kristina" provides exceptional comfort for large groups.

Technically, the Lazzara 112 specs are built for performance and accessibility. Its relatively shallow draft is a significant advantage, allowing it to navigate the thin waters of the Bahamas or secluded coastal bays that other yachts of this size cannot reach. Powered by twin MTU engines, it delivers a smooth and reliable performance, making it a fan...
