The Hargrave 90 "M/Y Un Wine" is a classic American-style motor yacht that epitomizes the "home away from home" philosophy of the renowned builder Hargrave. Despite its 2001 production year, this vessel has been meticulously maintained, offering a timeless elegance that modern builds often struggle to replicate. The layout highlights are impressively voluminous for a 90-foot yacht, featuring a country-kitchen style galley, a full-beam master suite, and an expansive flybridge equipped with a hot tub and bar—perfect for high-end entertaining.

When examining the Hargrave 90 specs, it is clear this yacht was built for reliable performance and long-range comfort. Powered by robust Caterpillar engines, "M/Y Un Wine" delivers a stable and dignified cruising experience, making it a top-tier choice for extended family trips or leisurely charter cruising. Its wide beam and traditional lines provide a sense of security and space that guests ...
