There is something undeniably special about the Azimut 68 "Cerulean." As a standout 2019 flybridge yacht from the master builders at Azimut, it masterfully blends Italian flair with the practical needs of modern life at sea. The "Cerulean" is designed with an eye for flow; its layout highlights include a light-filled galley and a private, full-beam master suite that feels like a boutique hotel. The real star, however, is the expansive flybridge, which serves as the ultimate open-air lounge for entertaining or taking in sunset views.

The performance of this motor yacht is just as impressive as its aesthetic. According to the Azimut 68 specs, the carbon-fiber construction ensures a stable, smooth ride even when pushing toward its 32-knot top speed. This balance of agility and volume makes the Azimut 68 "Cerulean" a dream for extended family trips and high-end charter cruising. It isn't just a boat; it's a sophisticated sanctuary des...
