The Vanquish VQ58 "Sexsea" (2023) is the absolute definition of a high-performance "head-turner" on the Miami and South Florida day-charter scene. Built entirely from lightweight aluminum by the specialized Dutch yard Vanquish Yachts, "Sexsea" ditches traditional fiberglass construction for an ultra-durable, custom-welded profile that looks more like a stealth fighter than a conventional day cruiser. The layout highlights are strictly optimized for high-end open-air entertaining, offering massive walk-around social zones, silver-guard upholstered sun lounges on both the bow and stern, and an advanced hardtop complete with an integrated cooling misting system to beat the tropical heat.

Technically, the Vanquish 58 specs are engineered to leave standard motor yachts far behind. Powered by twin Volvo Penta IPS 950 engines, "Sexsea" delivers an exhilarating performance, comfortably hitting a top speed of 38 knots while slicing effortl...
